The Board of Directors shall take reasonable steps to insure that the corporation shall have a regular meeting each year.

2.2 Special Meetings – Special meetings of the Shareholders may be called by the Secretary at any time upon request of the Chief Executive Officer, or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, or a majority of the Independent Directors and shall be called by any Officer of the corporation upon written request of Shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than ten percent (10%) of the voting Shares of the corporation. The written request shall be given to the Chief Executive Officer and shall contain the purpose of the meeting. Notice shall be given in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.6 hereof.

2.3 Quorum – The holders of one third (1/3) of the Shares outstanding and entitled to vote, represented either in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Upon the demand of any Shareholder, the vote for Director, or the vote upon any question before the meeting shall be by ballot. All elections shall be had and all questions decided by a majority vote of the number of Shares entitled to vote and represented at any meeting at which there is a quorum present, except in such cases as shall otherwise be required or permitted by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by agreement approved by a majority of all Shareholders. A majority of the then outstanding Shares may, without the necessity for concurrence by the Directors, vote to: (i) amend the Bylaws; (ii) terminate the corporation; or (iii) remove the Directors.

2.5 Voting of Shares by Certain Holders – Shares standing in the name of another corporation may be voted by such Officer, agent or proxy as the articles or Bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or in the absence of such provision, as that corporation's board of Directors may prescribe. Shares under control of a personal representative, administrator, guardian, conservator, attorney-in-fact, or other similar person may be voted by that Person, either in person or by proxy, without registration of those Shares in the name of that Person. Shares under the control of a trustee in bankruptcy or a receiver may be voted by the trustee or receiver if authority to do so is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which the trustee or receiver was appointed. 2.6 Notice of Meeting – There shall be mailed to each Shareholder shown by the books of the corporation to be a holder of record of voting Shares, at the Shareholder's address as shown by the books of the corporation, a notice setting out the time and place of the regular or any special meeting, which notice shall be mailed at least ten (10) days prior thereto. In the event the meeting is a special meeting called by an Officer following receipt of a written request of the Shareholders in accordance with Article 2.2 hereof, the notice shall be mailed within ten (10) days of the receipt of the request for the meeting, shall state the purpose of the special meeting, shall state that no other business shall be considered at such meeting, and shall name the date of the meeting which shall be held on a date not less than twenty (20) nor more than sixty (60) days after receipt of said request, at a time and place convenient to the Shareholders.

Every notice of any special meeting shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting, and the business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to purposes stated in the call. Notice thereof may be waived in writing either before, at, or after such meeting.

2.7 Proxies – At all meetings of Shareholders, a Shareholder may vote by proxy executed in writing by the Shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. Such proxies shall be filed with the Secretary of the corporation before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

2.8 Record Date – The Board of Directors may fix in advance a date, not exceeding sixty (60) days preceding the date of any of the aforesaid events, as a record date for the determination of Shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting and any adjournment thereof, or to receive any such dividend or allotment of rights, or to exercise the rights in respect to any change, conversion or exchange of capital stock or to give such consent, and in such case only such Shareholders on the record date so fixed shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting and any adjournment thereof, or to receive such dividend or allotment of rights, or to exercise such rights, or to give such consent, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any Shares on the books of the corporation after any such record date so fixed. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for such determination of the Shareholders of record, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed, or the date of adoption of a resolution of the Board of Directors declaring a dividend, allotment of rights, change, conversion or exchange of capital stock or to give such consent, whichever is earlier, shall be the record date for such determination of Shareholders. The determination of Shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting as called shall apply to any adjournment of such meeting except when the date of determination or the closing of the stock transfer took is more than ninety (90) days prior to such adjourned meeting, in which event a new meeting must be called.

2.9 Presiding Officer – The appropriate Officers of the corporation shall preside over all meetings of the Shareholders; provided, however, that in the absence of an appropriate corporate Officer at any meeting of the Shareholders, the meeting shall choose any Person present to act as presiding Officer of the meeting.

2.10 Conduct of Meetings of Shareholders - Subject to the following, meetings of Shareholders generally shall follow accepted rules of parliamentary procedure:

1. If disorder should arise which prevents continuation of the legitimate business of the meeting, the chairman may quit the chair and announce the adjournment of the meeting; and upon his so doing, the meeting is immediately adjourned.

2. The chairman may ask or require that anyone not a bona fide Shareholder or proxy leave the meeting.

2.11 Order of Business – The suggested order of business at the annual meeting of Shareholders, and so far as possible at other meetings of the Shareholders shall be:

8. Adjournment.

If inspectors of election are not so appointed, the Officer or Person acting as chairman of any such meeting may, and on the request of any Shareholder or his proxy, shall make such appointment. In case any Person appointed as inspector shall fail to appear or act, the vacancy may be filled by appointment made by the Board of Directors in advance of the meeting, or at the meeting by the Officer or Person acting as chairman. The inspectors of election shall determine the number of Shares outstanding, the voting power of each, the Shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the authenticity, validity and effect of proxies, receive votes, ballots, assents or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising and announce the result, and do such acts as may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all Shareholders.

No inspector whether appointed by the Board of Directors or by the Officer or Person acting as chairman need be a Shareholder.

2.13 Informal Action by Shareholders – Any action required to be taken at a meeting of Shareholders, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of Shareholders, may be taken without a meeting and notice thereof if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the Shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter set forth.

2.14 Access to Records – Any Shareholder and any designated representative thereof shall be permitted access to all records of the corporation at all reasonable times, and may inspect and copy any of them. Inspection of the corporation's books and records by an official or agency administering the securities laws of any jurisdiction in which the corporation's Shares are registered, shall be provided upon reasonable notice and during normal business hours. The corporation or its transfer agent shall maintain as part of its books and records and shall make available for inspection by any Shareholder or the Shareholder's designated agent at the home office of the corporation upon the request of the Shareholder an alphabetical list of the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the Shareholders of the corporation along with the number of Shares held by each of them (the "Shareholder List"). The Shareholder List shall be updated at least quarterly to reflect changes in the information contained therein. A copy of the Shareholder List shall be mailed to any Shareholder requesting the Shareholder List within ten days of the request. The copy of the Shareholder List shall be printed in alphabetical order, on white paper, and in a readily readable type size (in no event smaller than 10-point type). A reasonable charge for copy work may be charged by the corporation. The purposes for which a Shareholder may request a copy of the Shareholder List include, without limitation, matters relating to Shareholders' voting rights and the exercise of Shareholders' rights under federal proxy laws. If the Advisor or Directors of the corporation neglects or refuses to exhibit, produce, or mail a copy of the Shareholder List as requested, the Advisor, and the Directors shall be liable to any Shareholder requesting the list for the costs, including attorneys' fees, incurred by that Shareholder for compelling the production of the Shareholder List, and for actual damages suffered by any Shareholder by reason of such refusal or neglect. It shall be a defense that the actual purpose and reason for the requests for inspection or for a copy of the Shareholder List is to secure such list of Shareholders or other information for the purpose of selling such list or copies thereof, or of using the same as a commercial purpose other than in the interest of the applicant as a Shareholder relative to the affairs of the corporation. The corporation may require the Shareholder requesting the Shareholder List to represent that the list is not requested for a commercial purpose unrelated to the Shareholder's interest in the corporation. The remedies provided hereunder to Shareholders requesting copies of the Shareholder List are in addition to, and shall not in any way limit, other remedies available to Shareholders under federal law, or the laws of any state.

3.9 Notice – Unless notice is waived by all Directors entitled to notice, a regular meeting of the Board of Directors may be called by giving ten (10) days notice to all Directors. A special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called by giving at least twenty-four (24) hours notice to all Directors. Notice may be given by mail, telegraph, telephone, or in person. If given by mail such notice shall be deemed given when deposited in the United States Mails. Notice by mail may not be used if the meeting is called less than four (4) days from the date of notice. The notice must specify the date, time and place of the meeting, and if a special meeting, the purpose of the meeting.

3.10 Manner of Acting – The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. Each such determination shall be based on the factors set forth below and all other factors such Independent Trustees may deem relevant and the findings of such Trustees on each of such factors shall be recorded in the minutes of the Directors: (i) the size of the advisory fee in relation to the size, composition and profitability of the portfolio of the REIT; (ii) the success of the Advisor in generating opportunities that meet the investment objectives of the corporation; (iii) the rates charged to other corporations and to investors other than corporations by Advisors performing similar services; (iv) additional revenues realized by the Advisor and any Affiliate through their relationship with the corporation including loan administration, underwriting or broker commissions, servicing, engineering, inspection and other fees, whether paid by the corporation or by others with whom the corporation does business; (v) the quality and extent of service and advice furnished by the Advisor; (vi) the performance of the investment portfolio of the corporation, including income, conservation or appreciation of capital, frequency of problem investments and competence in dealing with distress situations; (vii) the quality of the portfolio of the corporation in relationship to the investments generated by the Advisor for its own account. Such determination and the reasons therefor shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting of the Directors and shall also be disclosed in writing to Shareholders, together with an explanation of all factors considered in the determination, within 60 days after the end of any fiscal quarter for which Total Operating Expenses (for the 12 months then ended) exceeded the Limitation.
